Lots of new faces for CSI Men's Basketball with same goal of winning NJCAA national championship

When this year's College of Southern Idaho men's basketball team takes the floor there will be only one familiar face on the court and one on the sidelines. But the goal to bring home a Scenic West Athletic Conference title, a Region 18 title and a National Junior College Athletic Association national title will remain the same.

The Golden Eagles have qualified for the national tournament 22 times, bringing home the national championship three times. To begin that journey towards another trip and another championship, CSI will look to returning NJCAA All American Fredrick Edmond for continuity.

Edmond, who averaged 18 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.8 assists last season, is the sole returning player from last year's team that won the SWAC championship before falling in the Region 18 Championship. The only other remnant of last year's squad is returning assistant coach Brock Morris. Together with new head coach Jared Phay a new era begins. Phay is no stranger to what it takes to win in Region 18, having coached at North Idaho College for 10 years.

"I'm excited for the new adventure here at CSI and appreciate the tremendous support I've received so far," Phay said. "I am honored to be coaching at Southern Idaho and ready to be a part of continuing the tradition of winning at CSI."

To do that, Phay has brought in a very talented group of players.

At the guard position, In addition to Edmond, he will look to Abdoulaye Harouna (Niger), Shaq Carr (Las Vegas), Uchenna Iroebu (Sacramento), Alec Meyerhoeffer (Twin Falls, Ar'Mond Davis (Tacoma, Wash.), Tyson Smith (Baltimore, Md.) and Pape Diatta (Senegal).

"We are very athletic, quick and can really shoot it," Phay said. "With the depth that we have, we should be able to apply a lot of pressure on opponents."

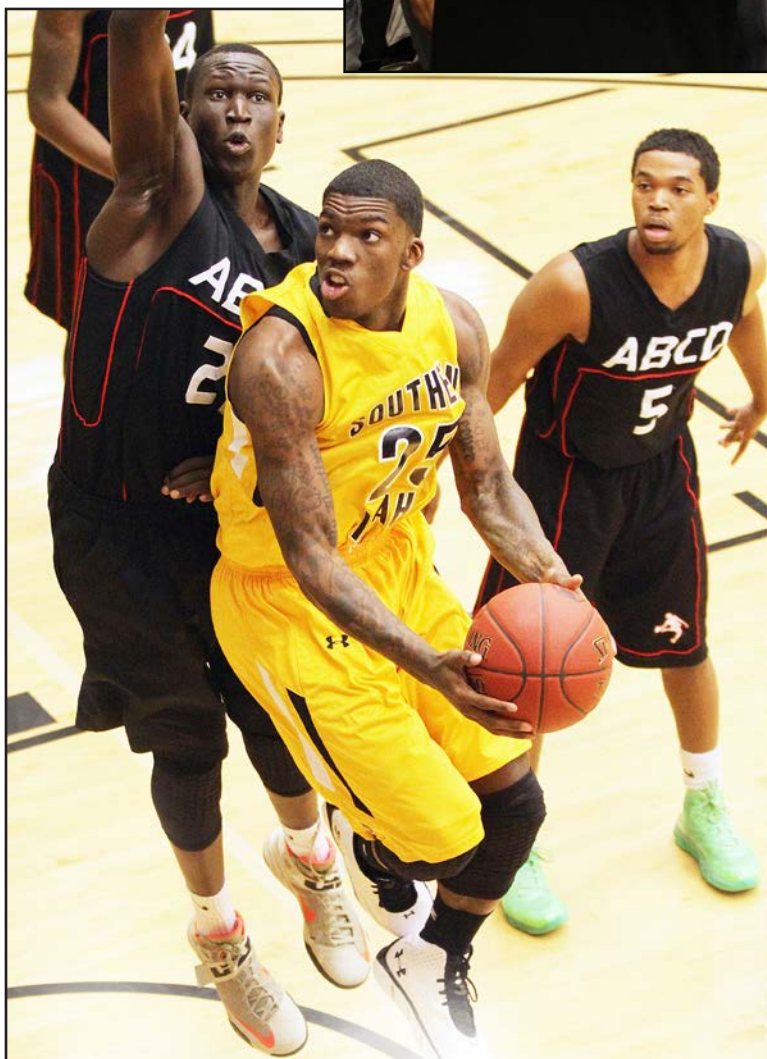

At forward/center, the Golden Eagles will have Ray Kasongo (Canada), Keonta Vernon (Tulare, Calif.), Dakota Chambers (Paradise Valley, Ariz.), Colton Chambers (Paradise Valley, Ariz.) and Austin Winegar (Weiser).

2014-15 Season Outlook

“We have good size inside,” Phay said. “We will be physical but will have the ability to run in transition or post up.”

The Golden Eagles have even more depth for practice. EJ Boyce (Boise), Kenrick (Ontario), Ryker Pierce (Rexburg) and LaMarcus White (Columbus, Ga.)

will all redshirt this season for CSI.

“This year’s CSI men’s basketball team should be fun to watch with a group of guys that are very athletic and who play hard,” Phay said. “This year’s team has a lot of depth at each position, which will allow us to do many different things.”

The SWAC will continue to be one of, if not the most competitive, conference in the country.

“We know that the SWAC will be as tough as it ever has been so we have our work cut out for us but we expect to be in the mix for a SWAC Championship,” Phay said.

The Golden Eagles open the 2014-2015 campaign ranked fifth in the NJCAA pre-season poll and third in the Sporting News pre-season poll.

Other SWAC schools listed in the poll include Salt Lake CC at No. 8 and North Idaho College at 21st.

Jared Phay Head Coach 1st Season

Jared Phay begins his first season as the College of Southern Idaho head men's basketball coach.

Phay joined the Golden Eagles after 10 years as the North Idaho College head coach.

"We have watched him grow. We have watched his program through the years and Jared does things the right way." said CSI Athletic Director Joel Bate.

During his time with the Cardinals, he was named Region 18 Coach of the Year three times. He won Scenic West Athletic Conference Championships in 2006, 2009 and 2010. The last seven years, he has posted 20 wins or more and has 221 career wins at North Idaho.

In 2010-2011, Phay led the Cardinals to their first ever No. 1 national ranking in school history from Nov. 23, 2010 to Jan. 4, 2011.

Academics are very important to Phay. In 2011-2012, his Cardinal team was one of only 10 NJCAA basketball teams in the country to earn Academic All-American status.

Phay assisted at North Idaho from 2003-2005 and prior to that he was an assistant coach at Motlow State CC for one season. Before that he had stints as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Idaho, head coach at Falls Christian Academy and assistant coach at Falls Christian Academy.

A Post Falls, Idaho native, Phay graduated from North Idaho College before earning bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Idaho in physical education. He is married to Tamara Phay, a first grade teacher. They have three children - Carson, Makenzie and Colton.

Brock Morris Assistant Coach 2nd Season

Brock Morris begins his second season at the College of Southern Idaho as an assistant men's basketball coach.

Morris came to CSI from The University of Louisiana-Lafayette where he served as the Director of Basketball Operations under head coach Bob Marlin from 2010 to 2013.

During Coach Morris' three seasons in Lafayette, the Cajuns had tremendous success on and off the court. UL won more games during the 2011-12 season than any Cajun team in over a decade. They were honored with hosting the first post-season game ever played in the Cajundome, NJCAA longest active winning streak during the 2010-11 season, Sun Belt Conference Division Champions, six of the top 10 best team semester GPAs in school history and nine players honored academically by the Sun Belt Conference.

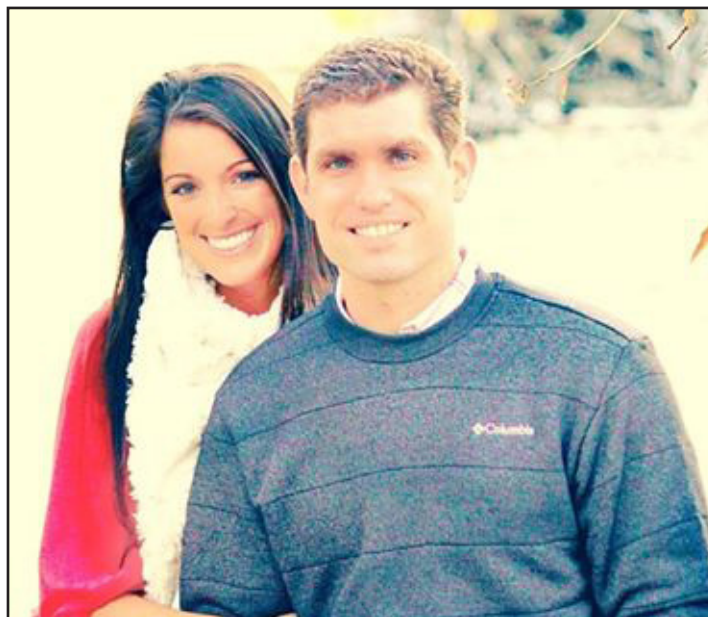

Coach Morris was vital in the development of Louisiana point guard Elfrid Payton. During Payton's sophomore season (2012-13), he was the only player in NCAA Division I to average more than 15 points, five assists, five rebounds and two steals. Payton earned First Team All-Sun Belt honors and earned an invite for USA Basketball's Under19 team tryout.

"Coach Brock reminds me of myself, always trying to get better and learn more about the game, but with that he always found time to help me get a workout in no matter the time of day. That kind of drive lets me know he'll be a great head coach one day!" Payton said.

Morris also coached 2013 freshman All-American and Sun Belt Freshman of the Year, Shawn Long.

Coach Morris spent two seasons - 2008-09 and 2009-10 - as the graduate assistant for his alma mater, the University of Alabama. During those two years he worked under current Alabama head coach Anthony Grant and former head coach (current North Carolina State head coach) Mark Gottfried.

Coach Morris played collegiately at Snead State College before transferring to the University of Alabama. He earned his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Alabama in 2008 and his master's degree in human environmental sciences with a concentration in sports management in 2010. He is married to Amanda (Archer.)

"Brock has become known as one of the best recruiters in college basketball at any level! Brock has a great understanding of the game and I believe will be a great head coach some day." -Jared Phay

Chris McMillian Assistant Coach 1st Season

Chris McMillian begins his first season as assistant men's basketball coach at the College of Southern Idaho. McMillian comes to CSI from the University of Hawaii where he served most recently as the team's Director of Basketball Operations.

McMillian worked as the team's strength coach and video coordinator the two years before to that.

McMillian also served as director of operations at Centenary College in 2008-09.

Prior to working at the University of Hawaii and Centenary, McMillian spent six years as a personal trainer and performance specialist in Phoenix, Ariz.

McMillian was a standout basketball player at the University of Wyoming during the time that former CSI basketball coach Steve Gosar was on staff with the Cowboys.

As a player, he helped the Cowboys to two Mountain West Conference Championships and one NCAA Tournament berth. McMillian finished his career ranked third all time in assists and second for consecutive games started. He currently ranks 10th in career assist average with 3.5 per game and sixth in career steals with 136.

A native of Brea, Calif, McMillian graduated from the University of Wyoming in 2003 with a degree in communications.

“Chris brings a ton of experience to our program. Chris has been a personal trainer, strength and conditioning coach, video coordinator as well as being a starting point guard at Wyoming. I feel that there is no aspect of the game the he doesn't have a good grasp of.” -Jared Phay

Aaron Anderson Volunteer Assistant Coach 1st Season

Aaron Anderson joins the CSI Men's Basketball for the 2014-2015 season. He finished his fourth year serving the Gonzaga University Men's Basketball Program as an Administration Assistant in the spring of 2014. He has been part of 4 NCAA tournament births and a first ever Number 1 seed in the NCAA tournament. Also a number 1 rankings in both NCAA polls for Division 1.

One of Anderson's main duties is the coordination of film and video scouting for the men's basketball team. His other main duty is the overseeing the operation of Gonzaga Men's Basketball Camps.

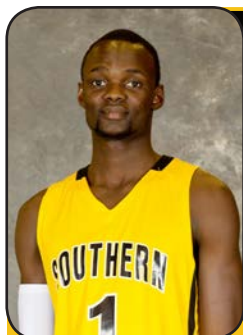

The native of Pontiac, Ill., graduated from Pontiac Township High, lettering four years in basketball. He was All-State honorable mention as a senior, as well as being an all-conference selection as a sophomore and senior.

He lettered four years at University of Illinois at Springfield, an NAIA school while being part of the school's first two trips the NAIA national championship tournament. He graduated with degrees in accounting and business administration.

He graduated with his master's degree in Sport and Athletic Administration at Gonzaga and spending one year as a graduate assistant with the team.

"Aaron is a dedicated and loyal worker with a great passion to teach the game of basketball. Aaron learned a lot as being part of a successful staff at Gonzaga and is able to apply that experience every day to our program!"

The Reason

When a child becomes seriously ill, the whole family suffers, particularly if the child must be hospitalized or receive outpatient treatment far away from home for extended periods of time.

To be with their child, parents often sleep on uncomfortable chairs or cots, or bear the expense and impersonal atmosphere of a hotel room. At a time when they want all their strength available for their child, the simple demands of everyday life can seem overwhelming.

For these families, Ronald McDonald House offers a refuge from the hospital, a home-away-from-home, where they can have a room of their own, a comfortable bed, kitchen and laundry facilities, toys for the kids, and a cup of hot coffee.

Ronald McDonald House

For the child, it's knowing that mom and dad are close by, in a good place. It's having a comforting, peaceful place to go from the hospital.

For a brother or sister who cannot be there, it's knowing that other family members are safe while away in a strange city.

For the parents in the House, it's knowing that they are not alone, that others have gone through similar situations and survived. It's new parents getting practical advice from "veterans." It's people drawing hope and strength from late-night conversations in corridors and kitchens, sharing experiences that can be difficult for family and friends back home to fully understand.

And, it's a place to treasure every moment of having a child "home," even if for just a short time.

For board members and volunteers, who give of their time, money, and skills, it's knowing that what they do really helps.

How The House Operates

Each Ronald McDonald House is unique, created by a team of local citizens to meet the needs of their community. The House is owned and operated by the local not-for-profit organization created by these citizens.

Local McDonald's restaurants become involved in initial fundraising once several key elements are present: medical advisors from a hospital with a need for such a House; a parent organization comprised of people whose children have been treated or are being treated at the same hospital; and other interested and concerned volunteers.

To varying degrees, all groups participate in planning, construction, furnishing, building community awareness, securing goods and services, and ongoing House operations. Other local and national companies also volunteer their support through material donations and monetary contributions.

Families using the House donate $5 to $15 per day, if they can afford it. These revenues pay for part of the costs of continuing House operations.

How It Began

The first Ronald McDonald House opened in Philadelphia in 1974 as the result of the perseverance and dedication of Fred Hill, then a Philadelphia Eagles football player.

Today, through similar efforts by other groups of dedicated individuals, Ronald McDonald House provides temporary housing for more than 350,000 people a year in facilities throughout the United States; Canada; Australia; Amsterdam, Netherlands; Geissen, West Germany.

McDonald's Corporation assists in increasing public awareness and in providing start-up funding for the new Houses. The local not-for-profit organization operating the House can qualify for $25,000 grant from Ronald McDonald's Children's Charities.

Most importantly, it is the time and services of local volunteers and the local contributions of money and materials that make it possible for the Ronald McDonald Houses to be open and operating.

Assisting in these efforts, McDonald's restaurant franchisees, holding individual promotions around the country, have raised more than $25 million for the Ronald McDonald Houses and the families they serve.

If you have questions about the national Ronald McDonald House program or wish to contact a local Ronald McDonald House regarding services, activities, volunteer work or tax deductible donations, write or call: Ronald McDonald House, 101 Warm Spring Ave., Boise, ID 83712.

President Jeff Fox

Dr. Jeff Fox was named the fourth College of Southern Idaho President in October of 2013, with an official start date of January 2014. He started at CSI as an Associate Professor of English in 1987; in 2006, he attained the rank of Professor of Merit. He received his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in English from California State University at Sacramento and his Ph. D. in Higher Education Leadership from the University of Idaho (his 2008 dissertation was on community college presidencies.)

From 1987 to 2000, he taught a variety of courses including literature, humanities, composition, and Japanese language. Fox was appointed as Director of the Academic Development Center in 2000, and in 2003 he became Chair of the English, Languages, and Philosophy Department. Fox was selected as CSI Academic Teacher of the Year in 1995, and he was awarded the Teaching Excellence Award from the J. A. & Kathryn Albertson and CSI Foundations in 2000. In 2008 after a national search, Fox was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Academic Officer.

He and Evin, his wife of 31 years, raised their two sons in Twin Falls.

Athletic Director Joel Bate

Former CSI women's basketball coach Joel Bate took over Golden Eagle Athletic Director responsibilities in January 2007.

Bate, who had been teaching in the English Department since he arrived on the CSI campus in 1993, gave up teaching in the classroom to work with student-athletes and coaches on a daily basis.

Bate coached at CSI from 1993 until 2000, leading the Lady Golden Eagles to the national tournament in 1999. During that span, Bate compiled a 144-78 record. He coached four NJCAA All-Americans and four NJCAA Academic All-Americans. Two players went on to play professional basketball, including Jessica Gibbs Mesna who assisted current coach Randy Rogers. In 1999, Bate earned Region 18 Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to working at CSI, Bate taught and coached at Bishop Kelly High School in Boise. He taught senior English and headed the English department. In addition to his teaching duties, he coached girls' volleyball, track and basketball, where he compiled a 114-32 record and four third-place state finishes.

Bate earned his undergraduate degree in marketing at Boise State University and his master's degree in English at the University of Idaho in 1986.

Bate and his wife Donna and three children live in Twin Falls.
